Incredible Winter Scenery Has Arrived in the Yakima River Canyon!

The Canyon's massive basalt cliffs are now dusted in snow making for some incredible views! Winter at Canyon River Ranch brings a whole new experience to sightseeing, relaxation, and activities. Sit around the bonfire, shoot some sporting clays, or hike through the Canyon to see some unique snowscapes. Trying to avoid the cold weather altogether?... No worries! Dine at The Grill, soak in our heated jacuzzi, or take in the views from the giant glass lodge windows facing the river. Whether you are looking for adventure or relaxation, we have your winter getaway covered!

Bonfire by the River

Our firepit down by the river is freshly stocked with firewood and ready to burn. Stay nice and toasty while listening to the river and maybe seeing some evening stars. Bring s'mores or even hotdogs to roast! This is great way to unwind for the night and enjoy some time with family and friends!

New Breakfast Burrito at The Canyon River Grill!

The new loaded breakfast burrito is available everyday from 8AM-11AM over at The Canyon River Grill. Start your day off strong with a delicious meal that won't leave you hungry! Even sip on a coffee from The Canyon Grill Espresso while you wait, and get a little extra caffeine to boost your day. Reservations for lunch and dinner service Thursday-Sunday can be made using the link below!
